About FUB-ContinuEd

FUB-ContinuEd is a future-oriented, international continuing education program of Freie Universität Berlin. We provide high-quality, hands-on certificate courses for people at all stages of life and of all professional backgrounds who want to acquire knowledge and essential skills for their individual development. By offering a wide range of topics and formats, we allow our participants to flexibly integrate further education into their everyday lives. In doing so, we focus on contemporary teaching methods and topics that will help participants navigate pressing societal issues and changes in the workplace.

All courses run for 9 weeks and consist of live sessions with our experienced instructors combined with self-study activities. They can be taken parallel to a job, in between jobs, or in combination with a course of graduate or postgraduate studies. It is an international virtual learning opportunity that takes the aspect of sustainability into account and is also aimed at all learners with limited physical mobility.
